A CARD.

To Patrons of Choffin, Staples & Co.:

You will see from a card of the above firm on October 22d they will dissolve. Permit me to thank you for the generous support given to the old firm for the past seven years, and hope that you will find it to your interest to patronize my me firm. I have been fortunate to scente the services of Mr. R. H. Gill. IAM mas been connected with the well-known real estate firm of Messrs. F. D. Hill & Co. for six years. He is regarded by our best business-men at a model office-man. I have bought the old office and all the mail that may be addressed to chaffin, Staples & Co. after October 22d. This is a great advantage to those who may favor me with their patronage, as Chaffin, Staples & Co. have spent many thousands of dollars advertising real estate, and a great number of buyers of real estate are familiar with the old stand. I flatter myself the books of Chaffin, Staples & Co. will show that 99 per cent. of all farms and mills sold by Chaffia, Staples & Co. were sold by me, and that all of the large sales of city property were personally conducted by me, as reference to the old books of Chaffia, Staples & Co. and purchasers of sald city and county property will prove. I shall retain d. C. Kaslex, the politic and effect in book-keeper and assistant collector of Chaffia, Staples & Co. My new firm will be known as R. B. CHAFFIN & PROGRESS OF THE WORK ON THE NEW RAILROAD.—The track of the Richmond and Alleghany railroad has been extended six miles west of Cedar Point, and trains are now running regularly to the lastnamed station. The passenger train leaves here at 3:30 P. M. daily, except Sunday, and arrives daily, except Monday, at 9:50 A. M. Asday freight train has also been put upon the line, leaving here at 7:20 A. M. daily, except Sunday, and arriving daily, except Sunday, at 5:52 P. M. The track between bere and Cedar Point is in excellent condition, and the general work upon the fine is being pushed forward vigorously.

It will be a very gratifying piece of information to the many friends of the road to know that the receipts of the company are in excess of what was anticipated, and indeed what was promised in the outset. The company's bonds, too, have sold rapid-Oo, and will publish a real estate paper, which will be distributed all over America and Europe free. Handsome vehicles and fast horses will be kept to show all real estate to our patrons free of obarge. All business, city or country, entrusted to my new firm shall have prompt and faithful attention.

NO. 93. Rain Indications.—The low state of the river and the continued drought has made us all very anxious for our water supply. Last evening we heard from Williamson's, near the headwaters of the James, that the weather was clear and there were no indications of rain. At 11 o'clock last night, however, our friends at the Chesapeske and Ohio railway reported that at Huntington at 10:25 P. M. the weather was clear and cool, but had been raining nearly all day. At Canuelton at 10:20 P. M. it was raining. At White Sulphur at 9:45 P. M. it was warm and cloudy, with slight rain, and had been windy all the afternoon. At Covington at 9:40 P. M. it was cloudy, with good the main store being further than the property of the two stores. A couvex mirror is to be placed behind the book-keeper's desk, having a radius on the scale of the office-railing. This will give the pleasing effect of showing both stores at once. The main store is lighted with a double row of chandeliers, and will contain the large stock of staple dry goods, while in RAIN INDICATIONS .- The low state of the form through an archway at the junctur ton at 9:40 P.
